VILLAGE WILL IMPROVE SEWAGE TREATMENT PLANT

Trustees Will Follow Recommendations of State Water Board

Immediate compliance with the recommendations of the State Sanitary Water Board for the improvement of Antioch's sewage treatment works was voted at the May meeting of the village board.

This action by the board of trustees followed the report of state engineers who had recently made an inspection of the local plant. Present at the trustees' session Tuesday night were Engineers C. E. Schwob and L. E. Woodman of the State Sanitary Water board who urged that the degree of purification afforded by the Antioch treatment works be of the highest quality possible, and that the effluent from the local plant be sterilized during the summer months.

Daily Record Required
The written report states that "because the effluent from the sewage treatment works reaches a lake in which bathing and boating is prominent during summer months, it will be necessary that the village provide chlorination during the bathing season." In accordance with the Sanitary Water Board law, it is necessary that daily analytical determinations be made and recorded, and that a record of the operation be submitted to the state board at the end of each month. In order to make these determinations the village will have to buy laboratory equipment and the local operator will be instructed in its use.

Ten Recommendations
By keeping daily records, the engineers pointed out the village will be in a position to defend itself if at any time a downstream property owner were to bring suit against the village for pollution of the outlet stream.

Altogether there were ten recommendations submitted by the State Sanitary Water Board. These included the improvement of the Imhoff tank, filtering compartments cleaned at frequent intervals, leveling of filter beds, and repair of walls, installing a water supply at the plant, and the erection of a small building or tool house and wash room for the use of employees.

The total cost of the improvement is estimated at about $1,000, and will be paid for out of accrued funds of the village.

Tavern Licenses Renewed
Business transacted Thursday night by the board included the issuing of licenses of five taverns in the village and three licenses for the sale of alcoholic beverages in packages. All licenses expired April 30.

T. M. Palaske, owner of the Antioch Fuel and Ice company, was the successful bidder for the Antioch Hotel building. Work of razing the structure will proceed when the village trustees approve the proper workmen's compensation and public liability insurance which is to be furnished by the purchaser.

E. F. Lauren of Arlington Heights was re-employed as auditor.

Chicago Man Buys The Roundup from William Karpen

In a deal completed Saturday A. K. Mueller of Chicago bought the "Roundup" from William Karpen. S. Boyer Nelson was the broker in the transaction.

"The Roundup," one of the finest and most popular taverns and dining rooms in the locality, was built by Karpen on Route 54 a mile south of Antioch in 1934, and soon gained a large patronage among the traveling public as well as local residents.

The purchaser took charge of the business at once, and the Karpens have moved to Wisconsin.

Antioch P. T. A. Will Install Officers Monday

Standing committees for the year will be appointed following installation of officers at a meeting to be held by the Antioch Parent Teacher association Monday evening in the Grade school.

Mrs. W. C. Petty will act as installing officer.

A talk on plans for summer playground activities will be given by Mrs. Louise Crawford, recreational supervisor.

Musical selections will be given by the seventh grade band.

Distribute 17,000 Folders on Lake Region Attractions

Word of the beauties of Antioch's lake region was spread to nearly 17,000 persons through circulars distributed at the Chicago Travel show last week-end by members of the Antioch Lions club, who had charge of one of the booths there.

Four hundred and fifty additional circulars were turned over to the Lions club secretary to be used in answering inquiries of persons interested in the entertainment resources of this "vacationland."

Nearly 2,000 others are being distributed among the local business and resort men who co-operated in helping to make possible this bid for public interest in the vacation values of the Antioch lake region, as compared with other resort localities.

Committees in charge of the Antioch Lakes Area booth at the Travel show, which was held in the Stevens hotel under the auspices of the Chicago Daily News, included the following:

Wednesday, Robert Mann, W. L. Scott, Irving Elms; Thursday, George Joediecke, Adolph Kucera, H. S. Roberts; Friday, Ed Vos, William Brooks; Saturday, Dr. D. N. Deering and Geo. Wagner; Sunday, Frank Powles, C. E. Hennings, James F. Horan. The decorations of the Antioch booth carried out lakes and vacation ideas in attractive manner.

ANNOUNCE POPPY POSTER WINNERS

Thoms Sindorsen and Alice Fox Win in First and Second Classes

Thomas Sindorsen of the Lotus school is winner of first place, first class, in the Poppy Day poster contest which has just been concluded under the auspices of the Antioch Legion post and auxiliary and will receive the $2.00 award. Ruby Rudolph of the Channel Lake school won second prize, $1.00, in the first class, with honorable mention to Ann Kilbride of the Lotus school.

Second class winners were Alice Fox, first, $2.00, Ray Horan, second, $1.00.

Additional honorable mention went to Earl Talley, Oakland school; Dorothy Schnitz, Lotus school; Violet Smith, Grass Lake; Ella Fay, Grass Lake; Charles Friedle, Lotus school, and Laura Jane Minto, Oakland school.

Each year, in order to acquaint the public better with the purpose of Poppy Day, the Legion and auxiliary sponsor the poster contest as part of their publicity program.

The contests are carried on in the schools and include two classes—the first composed of pupils from the fourth to sixth grades, inclusive, and the second of pupils from the seventh to ninth grades, inclusive.

Forty posters from six schools were entered in the contest the Antioch unit of the American Legion and auxiliary conducted this year.

The contest closed on May 1, and the posters were judged Wednesday at the Antioch Grade school by Mrs. George Garland, Miss Lottie Jones and Mrs. Eleanor Micheli.

Miss Elizabeth Webb returned last Thursday from Washington, D. C., where she attended the national convention held by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

SPRING RECREATION PROGRAM IS NOW IN FULL SWING

Games, Crafts and Special Activities Occupy Young Folks of Village

A "May Play Day" for young children next Monday is among the spring recreation events to be held in Antioch. On Saturday a hike to Channel Lake was enjoyed by 15 youngsters. A picnic luncheon at the youth hostel there and a ball game on the grounds of the Channel Lake school were highlights.

Summer recreation activities are to be outlined by the board of supervisors at a meeting this week.

During the rest of the spring the following program will be carried out:

Monday, 3-4 p. m.—Crafts: 7th and 8th grades, dancing, Guthemuth and Coan, leaders; 4-6 p. m. organized games 7th and 8th grade boys and girls, Coan leader; ball games, 2nd, 3rd and 4th grade boys, Clayton, leader.

Tuesday, 4-6 p. m.—Crafts, organized games, ball games, 6th, 7th and 8th grade boys and girls.

Wednesday 4-6 p. m.—Crafts, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th grade girls; organized games 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th grade girls; ball games, 5th and 6th grade boys.

Thursday 4-6 p. m.—Crafts, 6th, 7th, 8th grade girls; organized games 6th, 7th 8th grade girls; ball games, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th grade girls.

Friday, 4-6 p. m.—Crafts, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th grade boys; baseball games. Saturday 9-12 a. m.—Crafts, special events, games; 1-5 p. m., crafts, games, team games.

Special events will be held on Saturday mornings for children through the fifth grade and in the afternoon for young folks from the sixth through the twelfth grades.

Included among the organized games will be croquet, volley ball, "pitchem," relays, quoits and ring games.

Lake Villa Activities

A group at the Lake Villa Community church has started a recreation club for girls. The girls have been busy decorating a room which has been set aside for their recreation pursuits, which will include board games and others.

A ball team is being organized for the boys, and they hope to be able to use the village park for their games. The little tots' play school now has a membership of 10.

Antioch Grade School Teachers Are Re-hired

All teachers at the Antioch Grade school have been re-hired for the coming year, it was announced by the school board Monday evening.

They are Mrs. Charles Lux, first grade; Marion Johnson, second grade; Mrs. Ruth Smith, third; Ruth Henn, fourth; Kathryn Smith, fifth; Margaret Fitzgerald, sixth, and Aylene Wilson, seventh.

R. E. Clabaugh will continue as eighth grade instructor and principal.

Charles Anderson, who has been acting as school engineer during the past several months, will continue in that capacity.

Miss Wilma Musch is resigning at the close of the school term, after acting as secretary for the past three years.

"Ducks Unlimited" Head to Be Speaker

C. S. Bedell of the national organization of Ducks, Unlimited, will be the speaker at a meeting to be held by the Antioch Rod and Gun club Tuesday evening, May 9, at 8 o'clock in the Township High School auditorium. All members of the club and their guests will be welcome to attend, the club officers announced.

Ducks Unlimited, they explain, is America's first national organization of wild-fowlers, carrying on a practical program to increase wild ducks, first—

1. By producing millions more annually through breeding ground management in co-operation with Canada. 2. And by united action by duck shooters in this country to protect and restore the sport.

PACKING HOUSE TO OPEN LOCKER PLANT

Antioch Firm Completes $30,000 Addition to Its Facilities

At a cost of $30,000, Joseph Patrovsky, owner, has put in as additional equipment at the Antioch Packing house an ultra-modern food locker plant.

This addition, Mr. Patrovsky points out, brings to the community one of the most modern features of the packing industry, permitting the storing of meats, fruits and vegetables in their raw state without the hours of toil necessary to sterilizing and canning foods for preservation.

The system is expected to have a definite economic value to farmers who now can have their animals slaughtered at any time of the year and at a nominal price, have them cut into roasts, steaks, and chops, wrapped, labeled and frozen and stored in a locker for use as needed.

Two styles of lockers will be available for the customer's convenience, door and drawer, with moderate rental charges by the year or month.

A 60-horse-power diesel electric generating unit capable of handling 50 tons of ice refrigeration has been installed to insure absolute safety to food thus stored, with a 30-horse-power diesel engine supplemented by Public Service power, as further emergency stand-bys.

Dalziel Opens New Food Mart at Twin Lakes, Wis.

Arthur Dalziel, who has been located in the Dal-Ray grocery here for the past two years, opened a new "Food Mart," Dalziel's grocery, in Twin Lakes, Wis., Monday. The store, featuring a complete grocery line, is situated opposite the lumber yard. Mr. Dalziel states that the establishment will have a free delivery service and will be prepared to serve its patrons with bread and vegetables fresh daily; fresh meats by Novak, and cured and cold meats, as well as all other staples of the meat and grocery line.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN HOLD DINNER

Thirty were present at a dinner held by the Antioch Business and Professional Women's club Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Cornelia Roberts.

CHAIN O'LAKES IS WONDERLAND FOR FISHERMEN

Antioch Lakes Offer Sport Within Easy Driving Distance

Some of the finest fishing anybody can desire, not up in the great north woods, but practically in one's back yard, is to be found in the "chain-of-lakes" around Antioch, it is revealed in the series of articles Jack Little, known to his public as Brooks Lake, has been writing on this region for the Chicago American.

The fishing season which has just opened promises to be one of the best in Illinois' history, Mr. Little points out. Illustrating this prophecy are the sizable "strings" which have already been taken in the channels at Lake Marie, Channel lake and others.

For years, Illinois fishermen have been going to Wisconsin for their pursuit of the finny quarry, but now even Wisconsin fishermen are succumbing to the lure of the fine sport to be had in northern Illinois waters. Give Information

So great has been the interest in the splendid sport offered by the lakes area around Antioch that, as a unique service to Chicago sportsmen, the Chicago American has appointed trustworthy individuals throughout this fishing area to act as heads of its Official Fishing Information bureaus. The list to date includes the following:

Antioch—(Bluff Petite, Channel, Little Silver and Loon lakes, Lake Marie and Lake Catherine) H. B. Gaston, editor of The Antioch News, phone Antioch 43; (Grass, Petite and Bluff lakes), Louis Nielsen, Route 59 and Grass Lake road phone Antioch 338.

Fox lake (entire chain of lakes) James Lynch, assistant state inspector, phone Fox Lake 187-W; (Pistakee, Fox and Nippersink lakes) Charles Berger, phone Fox Lake 18.

"Fishermen and Sportsmen" "To make all sportsmen fishermen... and all fishermen sportsmen" is the aim of the department conducted by Brooks Lake (or Jack Little).

"For years," he points out, "many Chicago fishermen have waited for their sport until they could take extended trips into the north woods in quest of the finny battlers... at the cost of considerable time and expense... passing up good fishing waters right under their noses."

"Immediately to the northwest of Chicago is a wonderland of some seventy lakes... little more than an hour's drive away. The center of this great recreation area is the world-famed Chain of Lakes embracing from south to north Pistakee, Fox, Nippersink, Grass, Petite, Bluff and Channel lakes and Lakes Marie and Catherine. Fringing the chain and connected by teeming channels are Round, Long, Fish, Wooster, Duck, Lily, Sullivan, Dunns, Little Silver, Loon and Deep Lake. Other lakes are glistening to the north, south, east and west, and many of these are said also to be connected by underground channels to the great chain."

"Here, in season, bass, pickerel, crappie and bluegills are found in abundance. In the streams and rivers around there are wall-eye pike to boot."

A total of more than 45,000 fish were planted in Illinois waters by the conservation department this year, Brooks Lake reminds his readers. A large percentage of these were placed in northern Illinois waters.

Brooks Lake urges that fishermen take care to insure that anglers will not risk losing their welcome; that they respect the rights of cottage owners and scrupulously obey the fishing laws—measures which will help to make for a good time for every one.

Can Pay Tax Money at State Bank Here

The State Bank of Antioch announced today that it is in a position to receive money on all tax bills mailed from the Lake county treasurer's office, and residents of this area may avail themselves of the service in order to dispense with the longer trip to Waukegan.

To Conduct Hearing on Floodgates at Wilmot Dam

A petition to have the owner of the Wilmot dam on Fox river install flood gates so as to prevent damage by flood waters to property in the area has been presented to the Wisconsin state public service commission, and a hearing will be held in the Kenosha county courthouse at Kenosha on Wednesday morning, May 17, at 10 o'clock.

Tried and Found Wanting

Public opinion polls indicate a widespread belief that there should be an immediate change in our legislation in general, and in the Wagner Act in particular. It is to the credit of a large segment of organized labor that it, too, has arrived at that point of view. Top executives of the A. F. of L., for example, have publicly and persistently urged revision of the Wagner Act, and have likewise urged a curb on the authority of the National Labor Relations Board, which administers it.

The crux of the matter seems to be that the Wagner Act, being a purely experimental piece of legislation, has almost entirely circumvented the desires and purposes of those who wrote the bill. The primary purposes were to bring about labor peace, to protect the workmen against unscrupulous employers, and to create general amity in worker-employer relations. In actual practice, the act has encouraged the labor racketeer, has created new and costly warfare both inside labor groups and between labor and management, and has disregarded basic rights of the employer. The Labor Relations Board in many instances has acted as both judge and prosecutor, making long and costly litigation in the courts necessary to obtain common justice for aggrieved parties. Only a few weeks ago the Supreme Court reversed a major decision of the Board in biting language. That finally corrected the injustice done—but during the many months the case was in the Federal courts, neither party to the controversy knew where it stood.

If Congress, in a dispassionate, non-partisan manner, will draw and pass sound labor legislation, the honest worker and the honest union will be the greatest beneficiaries, even as the honest worker and the honest union have the most to lose from the labor racketeering the present act has permitted and indirectly encouraged.

Rabble-rousers love to point to large earnings and leave the impression that their possession is harmful and detrimental to public welfare. They never mention that Federal income taxes alone take over half of incomes running from a little over $200,000 and up, or that after states have had their "pickings," the individual has but a minor interest left. No, they never say that government is the greatest financial beneficiary from large earnings of private endeavor and enterprise.

It Might Be Today

Something in the late President Wilson's message to Congress back in 1918 has even greater application today than it did then.

"The Congress might well consider," President Wilson declared, "whether the high rates of income and profits taxes can in peacetime be effectively productive of revenue and whether they may not, on the contrary, be destructive of business activity and productive of waste and inefficiency. There is a point at which in peacetime high rates of income and profits taxes discourage energy, remove the incentive to new enterprise, encourage extravagant expenditures and produce industrial stagnation, with consequent unemployment and other attendant evils."

In other words, it's just as harmful to continually mistreat the goose that lays the golden eggs—industry—as to kill it outright.

There's an analysis that's lost none of its sharpness with the passing years!

The Bright Spot

The President's dramatic telegram to Hitler asking him to pledge non-aggression against 31 nations met with thinly veiled derision in Berlin. The dictators are desperate—faced with the most pressing internal problems, they apparently can see no solution save to press on.

From our point of view, there is one bright spot in the international picture—our relations with Japan have steadily improved. Japan, though theoretically a member of the Rome-Berlin axis, seems to be getting farther away from fascism. And, curiously enough, the improved relations largely stemmed from a trivial incident. When the late Japanese Ambassador to the United States died suddenly in this country, his ashes were sent home with great formality, on an American battleship. The Japanese are the most formal of the world's peoples—and this gesture of good will found an immediate response in the Japanese press, and in the feelings of the Nipponese.

Editor Kellogg, President of the California Newspaper Publishers, gave a timely warning recently when he said that the newspaper is the bulwark between democracy and dictatorship, that freedom of the press is a safeguard not for the newspapers, but for the public.

A strike was recently threatened by workers in the egg industry in California, but no one was able to get the cooperation of the hens.

The recent intercollegiate live goldfish gulping contest gave the cannibals a mark to gulp at.

Drones Have No Fathers

The common drones seen about beehives have grandfathers but no fathers, says Pearson's London Weekly. They only have a mother, being born from the unfertilized egg of the queen bee. Queens lay three types of eggs—two fertilized and one unfertilized. The fertilized eggs can develop either into queens or into workers (which are all females) depending on the food given the larva. Unfertilized eggs develop into male drones.

Rainbows in Western Sky

The United States weather bureau says: "Rainbows do not occur in the western sky in the afternoon. However, with the proper atmospheric conditions, a halo—that is, a colored ring around the sun—is often observed. This colored ring is very often mistaken for a rainbow."

Battle After War Eased

The Battle of New Orleans, during the War of 1812, was fought two weeks after the treaty of peace was signed. In those days of slow communication, neither army knew until weeks later that the war was over.

PAUL WORKS A HARD FIELD

LESSON TEXT—Acts 18:1, 4-11; 1 Corinthians 2:1-5.
GOLDEN TEXT—I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.—Philippians 4:13.

"Sissy!" That one word uttered with the depth of scorn of which only a school boy is capable, is enough to ruin the happiness of the one toward whom it is directed. The writer of these notes has a manly son of eight years of age who has many ambitions in his young heart, but one great fear, namely, that he may do something that will mark him as a "sissy." It is a commendable thing that boys should feel that way, provided, of course, that they are properly instructed in home and church so that they know that real manly courage does not mean being a ruffian or an ungodly person.

One could wish that more of that spirit were evident in the Christian Church. We really have all too many professed believers who are "soft"—afraid of the hard blows of life. These people tell young folk both by word and deed that Christianity is a religion for the soft-hearted and sentimental, when as a matter of fact it calls for all the red-blooded vitality of the strongest man and woman. Here is a place for the boy or girl, man or woman who has a backbone and the spirit of the pioneer. It is a great and glorious battle in which we are engaged. Paul knew it and lived it. In the progress of his ministry we find him at Athens (Acts 17), where a brilliant appeal to the philosophers of that place brought little result. From thence he comes to Corinth, one of the greatest and most wicked cities of the day. Here he meets a difficult task.

I. Human Inability (Acts 18:1, 4-8).

To call a man a "Corinthian" was to label him as a drunkard and a libertine. The town was really tough and Paul walked right into that impossible situation to preach the gospel. He naturally first went to the Jews in the synagogue, but when he preached Christ they made short work of putting him out. Rather he should say he very definitely separated himself from them. Consider the graphic picture in verse 6. But he didn't go far, he set up his testimony for Christ in the house next door, where God had a believer, all prepared to receive him. The preacher of the truth may move, but he does not run away from God's appointed place.

Opposition was evidently keen, and as Paul came and went the leaders in the synagogue would probably meet him and make known their plans to destroy him. This, added to the opposition of the wicked city, was enough to discourage any man. He had some results (v. 8), but on the whole he had to struggle with the heartbreak of an impossible task. But the hour of man's extremity is the time of God's opportunity. There comes

II. Divine Encouragement (Acts 18:9-11).

God never tries His people beyond their ability to bear. It is not always given to His servants to have the assurance of success which came to Paul, but in all probability they do not face such staggering discouragement. In any case, those who have walked in the valley as well as on the mountain top with the Lord testify that He gives strength in the hour of weakness to all those who trust Him.

Paul was assured that no bodily harm would come to him and that he was not to think that he was alone, for there were many of God's people even in that wicked city. Safety and fellowship were thus assured, and none too soon, for almost at once a bitter persecution broke out against him. Read verses 12-17. Note that the assurance of God's protecting care does not mean that we shall escape trials and sorrows, but that we are to be kept in the midst of them.

III. The Secret of Victory (1 Cor. 2:15).

Looking back on his ministry in Corinth, Paul writes of the secret of his successful work there. This is a passage that every teacher and preacher of God's Word should prayerfully ponder. Eloquence, human wisdom, and self-confidence may be the basis of success in the things of the world, but not in the ministry of the gospel. How well we know that the most carefully reasoned and well-phrased message may be utterly flat and powerless, while the stumbling utterance from a heart full of the love and grace of God becomes a fire and a searching and a burning, because the Holy Spirit catches it up and bears it upon the inner consciousness of men (Morgan). The man who preaches without his soul a tremble with the sacredness of his task, his own unworthiness, and an appreciation of the power of God, may be eloquent and learned, but he will accomplish little for God.

LAKE VILLA

Lake Villa Community Church

J. B. Allen, Pastor

Sunday School—10:00 A. M.

Worship Service—11:00 A. M.

The work of redecorating the Sunday school class rooms has been started and will continue until all the class rooms have been finished.

On Mother's Day, May 14, the Sunday school will attend the worship service as a group and will occupy the lecture room. Mrs. Swanson's class will welcome the mothers and recognize each one with a spray of flowers. The oldest and youngest mothers will be given a bouquet.

For next Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Allen has titled his sermon, "The Sure Harvest," and on Mother's Day the sermon will be appropriate for that occasion.

Rev. Girard of McHenry exchanged pulpits with Rev. Allen last Sunday and the Allen family were guests of the McHenry minister and family at dinner the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Nelson, F. R. Sherwood and Mrs. Carl Eckdahl were Waukegan visitors last Saturday.

Glenn Grog of Waukegan visited at Carl Miller's home last Sunday.

Miss Vida Haley of Antioch spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haley.

Mrs. Clara Sherwood is a patient in Victory Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Peterson attended the funeral of a relative near Lake Geneva last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gur Swanson were very pleasantly surprised on Sunday, April 23, when they were invited to spend the evening with friends in Waukegan, the Carlson family, and found that thirty or more friends had gathered there to help them celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Their daughters, Evelyn and Elsie, had helped to plan it and it was a complete surprise. There was a large wedding cake, lots of flowers and gifts, and a Smorgasbord supper which was much enjoyed, and we join the hosts of friends in hearty congratulations on the happy occasion.

The recently elected village trustees, G. E. Miller, Frank Slazes and Lester Hamlin, assumed their duties at the meeting of the village board Monday evening.

Marie Shedek and Howard Wells Are United in Marriage

Miss Marie Shedek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shedek was united in marriage to Howard Austin Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wells, Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Francis Flaherty, pastor of St. Peter's congregation, Antioch, officiated at the 1 o'clock ceremony, held in the parsonage of St. Peter's church.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette and point lace over white satin, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies and stock. Her veil was caught at the head with a tangle of pearls and orange blossoms.

Her sister, Mrs. Joseph Meyers, attended her as matron of honor, wearing a peach-colored gown of net over satin, with a hat of matching shade. Peach and blue sweetpeas were combined in her bouquet.

The bridegroom and his best man, Conrad Shedek, brother of the bride, wore boutonniers of white carnations. A reception was held after the ceremony, at the Shedek home, where a four-course dinner was served to members of the immediate families.

Both Mr. Wells and the former Miss Shedek are graduates of Antioch Township High school. The bride was employed previous to her marriage as bookkeeper for the Antioch Packing company. The bridegroom is in the employ of the Omar Baking company, and is well known throughout the lakes region around Antioch and Fox Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be at home to their many friends after May 15, at 1031 Milwaukee avenue, Racine.

METHODIST AID WILL SPONSOR MOTION PICTURE

Mrs. Sam Rios and Mrs. H. H. Perry are co-chairmen of the ticket committee for the movie, "Four Girls in White," which the Ladies Aid society of the Antioch Methodist church is sponsoring at the Antioch theater Wednesday, Thursday and Friday May 9, 10 and 11.

Tickets for the benefit have been distributed to the committee members, and those who wish to secure them may also get in touch with the chairmen.

The picture, a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer release, features Florence Rice, Buddy Ebsen, Una Merkel, Alan Marshall and Ann Rutherford in a story based on the motives of a group of girls who enter a hospital for training in nursing.

It is recommended by the movie committees of Parent Teacher and University Women's associations, especially for adults.

GRASS LAKE P. T. A.'S SUPPER WELL ATTENDED

Suppers were served to 79 at the benefit party held by the Grass Lake Parent Teacher association Monday at 6 p. m. in the school. Cards, luncheon, bridge, five hundred and pinocle were enjoyed afterward. Prizes were donated by private individuals.

The party, which is an annual affair, was much larger this year than last year, according to the P. T. A. officers, who acted as the committee.

A silver tea and installation of officers for the coming year will be held Friday afternoon, May 19, at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Ben Kiefer, Grass Lake road.

LEADS GIRL SCOUT COOKIE CONTEST

Dorothy Aronson is leading the Antioch Girl Scouts' "Cookie Queen" contest with 42 boxes sold, it was reported at the troop's meeting last Thursday. Jane Nelson is second.

The sale will continue for a few more days, it was announced.

Mabel Lou Hunter conducted the meeting, with Dorothy Aronson as secretary.

WOMAN'S CLUB ELECTS MRS. T. F. HUNT, PRES.

Mrs. T. F. Hunt, president; Mrs. G. R. Bicknell, vice-president; Mrs. N. E. Sibley, secretary, and Mrs. Roy Kufalk, treasurer, are the officers who were elected by the Antioch Woman's club at a meeting Monday afternoon in the Bicknell home.

Six tables of bridge were arranged and a luncheon served afterward.

Swindlers Thrive in Rural Districts

Between $2,000,000 and $5,000,000 in stocks and bonds have been swindled from Illinois' citizens in the past five years, the Bureau of Rural Crime Prevention reports.

The swindlers make a practice of approaching aged persons, usually in small communities, asking for depreciated stocks and bonds to sell. In the course of their talk they ask for good bonds to sell with the depreciated ones in order to make them more saleable. Persons who part with their securities never hear of them again.

Strangers should be identified by the local State's attorney before being permitted to transact business, the Bureau advises.

Homemakers Told To Check Legal Papers About Home

Counseling Lake county homemakers to have an equal knowledge with their husbands of the legal papers and documents in the home, Miss Gladys Ward, home management specialist, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, told more than 50 home bureau members and their guests at an open meeting at Warren Township High school in Gurnee recently that the overhauling of valuable papers is one of the first safeguards of family security and shows wise home management.

Families have been known to manage carefully and save for several years and then lose their savings because some one signed a document without investigating it, she pointed out.

Aside from knowing where they stand legally, she urged homemakers to inquire into their property rights. The holding of property, the guardianship of children, the liability in case of family debt have a direct effect and are of major concern to homemakers since the revision of some of the state laws, she said.

A check-up on what either the husband or wife may expect from the estate in event of the death of either was another recommendation. Along with this, Miss Ward stressed the making of a will. While simple wills are less trouble, it is possible to avoid many difficulties if families would consult a good lawyer for this purpose, she said.

In the study, homemakers of the county will inquire into points to know when signing deeds, when purchasing property, and when taking out life insurance.

Miss Ward reminded the group that careful examination of legal matters pertaining to the home would be of little avail, however, unless the papers were kept in a fireproof or burglar-proof safe or storage box.

Eight et Forty Holds Meeting at Thurlwell Home

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Paul Rossberg, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Mieczynski and George Heckinger, was appointed by Chapeau Neville at a meeting of Lake County Salon No. 191, Eight et Forty, Wednesday evening at the home of Partner Thurlwell, Grayslake.

Mrs. Mancel Talcott, Waukegan, child welfare chairman, reported that Easter gifts, party favors and cards had been sent to the girls at Grant cottage, Lake Bluff Orphanage, and National Jewish hospital.

Chapeau Neville called the attention of the salon to the scholarships being awarded through the national organization to tubercular children who had been cared for as part of the Eight et Forty's rehabilitation program.

Partner Clouse of Chicago paid a surprise visit to the salon.

The handmade quilt donated by Partner Clouse was awarded to William E. Cawley of Highland Park.

After the business session the Salon enjoyed cards with honors going to Mmes. Whyte, Talcott and Heckinger. The climax of the evening was a book shower given for the girls at Grant cottage, Normal, Ill. Twenty books were collected and these will be sent to Normal by the child welfare chairman.

A luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mmes. Almond, Thurlwell and Loretta Burke.

Bette Davis Is Society Girl in "Dark Victory"

Bette Davis plays a role unlike any of her previous ones in "Dark Victory," the picture that will come to the Kenosha theatre in Kenosha this weekend.

She is seen as a popular and light-hearted society girl aimless but likeable, whose life is darkened by tragedy when she becomes the victim of a mysterious malady from which, although she does not know it, she cannot recover.

George Brent is seen as the young doctor who keeps the secret of her illness; Humphrey Bogart as the Irish horse trainer, frank and insulting, whose sentimental heart makes him fall in love with the heiress; and Dorothy Peterson, Henry Travers, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Ronald Reagan play other roles.

Edmund Goulding directed.

Epworth Leagues to Hold 50th Anniversary Banquet

Under a tree in Cleveland, Ohio, 50 years ago on the 15th of May, the Methodist young people held their first meeting and so was born the national youth organization known as the Epworth League.

To commemorate this memorable occasion the Lake Shore Sub-District of Epworth Leagues will hold an anniversary banquet at the Libertyville Methodist church on May 15 at 7 o'clock.

The Rev. Clifford Newham, better known as "Pop," Pastor of Covenant church, Evanston, will be the speaker of the evening.

This banquet will also be a reunion for "old timers," so young and old are being urged to attend.

Reservations must be in by May 7, and tickets may be secured from Curtis Hubbard, Libertyville.

Round Lake Woman Dies in Accident

Mrs. Charles Lally 76, of Round Lake, was instantly killed when she was struck by a milk truck as she was crossing the road from her home to collect the morning mail Tuesday shortly after 8 a. m.

At a coroner's inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lally will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home. Interment will be in East Fox Lake cemetery.

The Lallys were residents of Antioch before moving to Round Lake several years ago.

Liberty Cemetery Ass'n. Officers Serve 34 Years

After 34 years as president of the Liberty cemetery association, N. J. Crowley has retired. H. A. Lubeno was chosen to succeed him at the association's annual meeting, held Saturday afternoon in the Liberty Corners social center.

Mrs. Mildred Patrick, Salem, was elected secretary to succeed Sarah Patrick, who also served 34 years.

A good attendance was present at the meeting.

Antioch Packing House Opens New Locker Plant

The Antioch Packing House announces the completion of a Food Locker Plant to its packing facilities. This addition brings to the community one of the most modern features of the packing industry, the storing of meats, fruits, and vegetables in their raw state without the hours of toil necessary to sterilizing and canning foods for preservation.

This system has a definite economic value to farmers who now can have their animals slaughtered at any time of the year, and at a nominal price, have them cut into roasts, steaks, and chops, wrapped, labeled, frozen, and stored, in a locker ready for future use.

For the customer's convenience two styles of lockers are available: door and drawer lockers. Rental rates for the door lockers are $10.00 per year; and for the drawer styles, $12.00 per year, or $1.50 by the month.

To insure absolute safety to food thus stored, the Antioch Packing House has installed one 60 horse power Diesel electric generating unit capable of handling fifty tons of ice refrigeration, and as a stand-by for emergencies a 30 horse power Diesel engine, and a Public Service stand-by.

The Observer

Seems as though women miss a lot of fun, tinkering around with cars and such. But maybe they make up for it hashing over recipes and figuring out new ways to knit a sweater.

Funny how folks can go along in the same old way all winter and then get all hot up with ambition and the cleaning and painting fever. Must be the example old Mother Nature sets when she re-decorates her world in spring.

Gyping a gem from the "Yesterday" column—the Antioch News of May 6, 1898, J. J. Burke, editor and publisher, delivers the following noble thoughts from the pen of Edgar L. Masters:

The Salute
The yankee tar has a soul for war,
As fierce as a bird of prey,
And never a foe has dimmed his star,
Nor driven his ships to bay.
But as for the Spanish sailor,
A craven soul is he—
And we'll train our guns on the Spaniard sons
Till their fleets are swept from the sea!

Oh, well for the slur of murderer,
On America's soldiery,
But never a power was conqueror,
O'er a people brave and free.
For the Spanish troops' derision
Who tackles an iron foe,
An open field for assassins
Makes graves for the fields of woe.
While the scepter of lust is ground in the dust
And the hope of its hate laid low.

Then hail to the flag of freedom,
Wherever it is unfurled,
And hail to the soldiers and sailors
Who fight as no men fight—
Till right is even stronger than might
And sunshine covers the world!
Query—Could the Edgar L. Masters who delivered this trumpet call be the Edgar Lee Masters whose ironically titled "Spoon River Anthology" caused some genteel gasps in the literary world a few years ago?

Men Do Funny Things, Too!
The woman driver is the bugaboo of the highways today—the men say. She can never make up her mind, apparently, whether she wants to stop, turn off into another street, draw up to the curb, or turn around. She uses the rear-view mirror to powder her nose and set her hat straight, instead of for watching traffic to the back of her. She gets terribly excited when she gets in a "jam," especially when a few dozen men motorists with loud and imperious horns toot them at her simultaneously. Strong-minded and strong-willed mothers of large families have been known to get a pitiful case of jitters under such circumstances... to say nothing of what it does to the "sweet young things." In fact, some women are said to have become chronically enbittered after only a few such jam sessions.

However, being honest-minded and (fairly) impartial, we cannot refrain from admitting that the men have a few little faults, too.
The worst of these is reckless "passing"—weaving in and out of heavy traffic, at high speed, causing more cautious drivers all down the line to gasp fervent prayers and risk rear-end collisions by stepping on their brakes with frantic haste to avoid imminent crashes.

Dafting out at high speed from cross streets, deliberately cutting in front of through traffic with a nasty "I-dare-you-to-hit-me" expression on their faces, pulling away from curbs without looking around to see whether other vehicles are approaching, driving fast on the wrong side of the road, coming to abrupt stops without giving a warning signal of any kind, and a general impatience and recklessness are some of the charges brought against the harder-boiled sex.

However, there is an exception. Truck drivers, men and women both admit, are, though handicapped by the unwieldiness of their vehicles, frequently among the most courteous and considerate of drivers.

Women's driving faults, it is generally agreed, come mainly from lack of practice and the fact that women are not, as a rule, "mechanical-minded"; men's from absent-mindedness and a certain innate recklessness. No man likes to have a woman pass him on the road. Even if she is apparently in the midst of a long journey and he is just going around the next corner, he will try to beat her to that corner.

Maybe the cue for both is to use greater care; to speed only in moderation; to use good manners on the road; and to try to do by all other drivers as we ourselves would like to be done by.

Russell School to Give Operetta Friday Night

"The Pied Piper of Hamelin," an operetta, will be given by pupils of the Russell school Friday evening, May 5 in Rosecrans hall. The performance, which will be open to the public, will start at 8:30 o'clock daylight saving time.

WILMOT TEACHERS ARE RE-ENGAGED

H. S. Class Play, "Eyes of Tlaloc," Will Be Given Friday Evening

Principal M. M. Schnurr, Ruth Thomas, Mildred Berger, Winnie Dake, Ruth Bosselman, Russell Ende, Herbert Frank and Thomas Duffy of the Union Free High School faculty at Wilmot have been re-engaged for the coming year as also have Principal Margaret Cartwright and Marion Rhodes of the Wilmot Grade school. The Senior class of the high school will present a three-act mystery play, "The Eyes of Tlaloc," at 8:15 P. M. on Friday night, May 5, in the Wilmot gymnasium. The play is directed by Ruth Thomas of the English department.

In the cast of characters are: Ezra Simpkins, Raymond Forster; Amanda Simpkins, Myrtle Lovestead; Pudge Rogers, James Faber; the Professor, Eldon Schenning; Tommy Tinker, Stanley Runyard; Nancy Howe, Virjan Maleski; Virginia Lee Byrd, Margaret Schenning; Pat Gillis, Joan Thompson; Nawa, Stuart Waldo; Salvador Del Santos, James Axtell; Pito Del Santos, Elois Allen; a rauncher, Merlin Johns.

Committees: Business manager, Lyle Richter; advertising man, Charles Goff; stage manager, Ralph Freeman; stage effects, Dan Zeras, Don Burnmeister; properties, Isabel Barfyte and Marie Schafer.

The annual Junior Promenade will be held May 19, in the gymnasium. Invitations will be mailed out this week or next. Anyone entitled to an invitation and accidentally left off the list should contact the high school office, it is announced.

The high school baseball team defeated East Troy 11-7 and Norris Farms 32-7. This week the team meets Waterford at Wilmot and Mukwonago at Mukwonago.

The next P. T. A. meeting will be held on Monday evening, May 8th. One hundred attended a banquet for Kenosha county teachers held at the Wilmot High school on Wednesday evening.

Community Club Beautifies Channel Lake School Grounds

The planting of two dozen spirea bushes on the Channel Lake school grounds was completed Tuesday by the Channel Lake Community club. The planting is part of the club's program of community beautification.

The next regular meeting of the organization will be held on Monday evening, May 8, at 8 o'clock daylight saving time.

Mrs. W. W. Ward, Mrs. Nicholas Zeien, Mrs. Paul Chase, Willis Shannon, Lisle Rogers and Ray Rogers are a "committee of six" in charge of the gala spring party the club plans to sponsor for members and friends of the community on Saturday evening, May 13, in the Woodcrest Inn.

Dancing, prizes, cards and a luncheon are included in the evening's program of entertainment. Three hundred tickets for the event have been distributed to members of the committee and their aides. Attendance will be restricted to the numbers of tickets, so all who are planning to attend from the various neighboring communities are being urged to get their tickets as early as possible.

President of Minnesota Univ. Was "Wilmot Boy"

Dr. Guy Stanton Ford, who is president of the University of Minnesota, paid a surprise visit to the village of his birth, Wilmot, Wis., last week-end. Dr. and Mrs. Ford were returning to Minneapolis from Ann Arbor, Mich., where the well known educator spoke at the University of Michigan.

Accompanying them to Wilmot, where they were week-end guests at the Louis Hegeman home, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford of Waukegan.

ANTIOCH DENTIST ATTENDS LABORATORY CLINIC IN CHICAGO
Dr. L. John Zimmerman, Antioch dentist, was in attendance yesterday and today at the Standard Dental Laboratories clinic in Chicago. The clinic is held each year to acquaint practitioners with the latest and most approved methods in the fitting and manufacture of dentures.

To Hold Picture-Making Demonstrations in Class

Demonstrations of the actual processes of making different types of pictures will be held in the recreation camera classes meeting Tuesday evenings at the Antioch Grade school.

Tex Wiley, instructor, also states that on Tuesday afternoons pictures will be made of various types of recreation activities in Antioch, in such a way as will be instructive to camera fans. All who are interested are invited to attend, he announces.

Mr. Wiley is adviser and organizer for the Associated Camera Clubs of Lake County.

Warn Fishermen to Avoid Lake Marie Property

A warning to motorists and fishermen to respect the property rights of residents in the Forbach subdivision at Lake Marie has been issued. According to Walter Forbach, head of the Forbach property owners' association, complaints have been made that many outside autoists park their cars on private property and then go fishing in the lake.

Invite Nearby Royal Neighbor Chapters Here

Royal Neighbor lodges of Libertyville, Gurnee, Lake Villa, Grayslake, Salem and Waukegan have been inited by the Antioch organization to attend a meeting here Tuesday evening, May 9.

All Antioch members are especially urged to be present, the local officers state.

A luncheon will be served after the business period.

Garfield's Burial Place
President Garfield is buried in Lake View cemetery at Cleveland, Ohio. The Garfield Memorial is in the form of a tower 165 feet high. In its base is a chapel containing a statue of the President and several panels portraying various scenes in his life. His remains are in the crypt below the statue.

Bullet in His Pipe

Scores a Bullseye

THOMSON, ILL.—Because a 22-caliber cartridge had become mixed with tobacco, Noah Switzer is looking for a new pipe. His old and favorite had been wrecked when the cartridge was set off by the heat of burning tobacco in the bowl. Part of the pipe was blown into an adjoining room. Only the stem remained clenched between Switzer's teeth.

'MOUNTIE' JEERS AT STORIES OF NORTH

Canadian Outpost Feared as Land of Mystery.

EDMONTON, ALTA.—Mystery, legend and superstition no longer contrive to keep the desolate Nahanni country—last northern Canadian outpost—a feared and forbidden region.

Weird tales have drifted "outside" by word of mouth over the 800 miles of trackless wastes separating Nahanni from Edmonton.

Old-timers heard stories of fabulous gold deposits in the rugged mountainous area in the western extremities of the Northwest territories. Gold deposits to tempt those hardy and daring enough to scoff at death ominously connected with rich "strikes."

Several unexplained deaths in the region deepened the air of mystery. The deaths of William and Frank McLeo, whose bones were discovered 30 years ago in the loneliness of Nahanni Death valley, kept many prospectors from searching for the rich vein the two veterans reportedly uncovered.

A former Royal Canadian Mounted police officer was the first to discredit these rumors.

"All mere Indian talk," he said. "To be certain there have been deaths in that section of the country, but no more than would be expected for its sudden storms, its treacherous snowslides and remoteness."

Northern residents denied that Indians refused repeatedly to guide white prospectors into the area.

W. L. Bliss, University of New Mexico archeologist, announced upon returning from the Nahanni country last summer that he had found caves in the mountains. He said the caves apparently were used by ancestors of North American Indians in their migration from Asia centuries ago.

Joker Escapes Police

Bullets in Mock Holdup

HOT SPRINGS.—Capt. Jerry Watkins of the Hot Springs police disclosed how near a practical joke approached grim tragedy. Two citizens, a well-known physician and a courthouse official whose names were withheld, decided to stage a mock holdup, complete with cowboy hat for the bandit and frightened victims.

They selected a well-known roadside restaurant and filling station a short distance from the city limits and proceeded to the spot. The courthouse official donned the sombrero in the most approved "desperado" style and, at the point of a gun proceeded to "stick up" the doctor and his party.

The proprietor of the establishment spied the group from a window and called Hot Springs police.

They came, quietly in a squad car filled with firearms which included a sub-machine gun, a sawed-off shotgun and several revolvers.

As the police car neared the scene, they slowed and doused the lights, moved up unseen and covered the pseudo-bandit who was gleefully relieving his pseudo-victims of their valuables.

Captain Watkins said that had the mock desperado made the slightest move to turn as they ordered him to drop his gun, he would have been riddled with lead.

Officers said nothing more severe than a reprimand resulted.

Four Laws Are Violated

In One Driving Lesson

CLEVELAND.—Thomas Arnone, 21, meant well when he offered to teach Phyllis Dottore, 13, to drive, but now he wishes he hadn't.

With Arnone and another man inside his coupe and William Geraci, 10, offering suggestions from the running board, the young girl started.

Rounding a corner she sideswiped a parked automobile, throwing Geraci against it, injuring his hip. Police charged Arnone with:

Permitting four to ride in (and on) a coupe.

Permitting an unlicensed minor to drive.

Allowing a man to ride on the running board.

Using license plates listed for another car—his father's.

'Lowest Form of Thief'

Is Given Jail Sentence

CHICAGO.—When Jerome Astamsky, 17 years old, was arraigned in Boys' court, Judge Joseph B. Hermes told him, "you are guilty of the lowest form of thievery." Astamsky was seized in the Church of the Sacred Heart, 1001 South Peoria street. He had taken $1.57 from the poor box and a microscope from the parochial school next door. Hermes sentenced him to two years in the bridewell.

Gypsy Influence Rules New Styles

Gay Stripes and Plaids Are All the Rage

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

This idea of gypsy stripes and plaids, of full gathered skirts, of gypsy sashes and so on is spreading like wildfire. One of the most talked-of dresses that goes to young folks' dinners and dances and evening parties is the gypsy costume that tops a full gathered-in-the-waistline skirt and flamboyant stripes or plaids, with a dainty white chiffon blouse that has long full-in-at-the-wrist sleeves, with perhaps a draw-string neckline. Sometimes the blouse is of the exquisitely sheer "baby" type, that has "oodles" of val lace edgings gathered row-and-row in all-over patterning.

In the day, short swing skirts, gored or pleated and in plaid or stripes, ally with the dainty lingerie gypsy blouse in picturesque fashion yet thoroughly practical for utilitarian general wear.

Dotted prints are the rage. Designers are using them most cleverly. They partner tiny dots with enormous dots. Twin-prints reversing the order of their colorings are worked in contrast for the same costume. For example, a white dotted patterning on a red background is combined with a red-on-white print silk. Navy and white dotted silks are a first choice since navy is the big color this spring. Many navy costumes are trimmed with polka dot panels, sometimes the jacket is lined with polka dot to match the blouse worn with it.

Print Redingote

For ultra chic you simply must have a redingote costume this spring. Very smart models are made of either navy or black silk crepe tailored to a nicety. These are "set off" with the daintiest, most feminine lingerie cuffs and collar. Just as chic and the newest thing out is the redingote of pure silk printed crepe, after the manner of the model pictured. This costume carries out the fashionable navy and white combination in that the redingote is of navy and white printed silk crepe worn over a white frock. Very up to the minute.

Fashion Flashes

Ruffles and flounces flourish in the mode.

Designers introduce interesting bustle themes.

Many turbans that denote various epochs are worn.

Couturiers are enthusiastic over the new bordered prints.

Many of the newer daytime dresses have long sleeves.

Shoulder-cape tops appear in the latest afternoon frocks.

Long Directoire scarfs are worn with slim dinner gowns.

Embroidered peasant-fashion boleros are worn with suspender skirts.

Nipped in waistline with extended hipline curves is new silhouette.

Evening Clothes

Adopt Ingenue Air

Evening clothes for spring are slated to be pure ingenue—bouffant frocks made of tiers of ruffles, or straight gowns, the fullness in front, bodice and skirt tied up with ribbons. Jumper and "guimpe" effects for day and night.

Favored fabrics will be printed linens, silks, cottons, rayons. Prints are in smaller figures, many of them two colors only. Stripes, particularly pin stripes, are excellent. Plaids are less important. For evening, in addition to these, you will wear chiffon, net or lace.

Georgette Linen

Destined to make its appearance the coming summer is a new material called georgette linen, an ultra-sheer fabric that is said to be crease-resistant.

TRUTH about ADVERTISING

By CHARLES B. ROTH

HIGH PRESSURE SALESMANSHIP

A SALESMAN, 10 years ago unscrupulous but successful, came in to see me today with his troubles. He no longer makes sales. I asked him what he thought was the matter.

"That's just it," said he. "I don't know. I give 'em the works—but they don't buy."

This man is a salesman of the old school—a worshipper at the shrine of high pressure salesmanship. His methods no longer make sales. He thinks he's losing his grip.

That is not the trouble. The truth is that high-pressure salesmanship is out, is dead, is obsolete, is without power to make sales in these days of greater education.

People haven't changed, but they have become better educated in the higher education of taking care of themselves and their money. The process which brought about this education is newspaper advertising.

It used to be possible for a glib talker to take almost anything out to sell, no matter how worthless or inferior, and by sheer high-pressure selling to "clean up." But not now.

Even the lowliest buyer knows that certain claims are untrue, and that the price asked for certain items is excessive. These things he knows because advertising, his refuge against false claims, told him so.

The average customer today is much better informed than even professional buyers were 20 years ago.

The housewife knows which foods contain vitamins, which contain vegetable oils, which contain expensive ingredients and the like. She knows the effect of this or that product.

She is never, therefore, at the mercy of the high-pressure artist who seeks to rob her by giving her less than others and charging her more for it.

Advertising in the newspapers, which she consults regularly, has built into her life an expert knowledge of values and prices and qualities. These make her an extraordinarily well informed person.

He who would sell the average customer must come with good value, a fair price and high quality. Otherwise he won't get even a hearing, because we have something now with which to compare unknown or new goods—and we are quick to reject those that do not measure up.

Much more than a selling aid for business is advertising. It is an educational system which is making Americans the best-educated buyers in the world. It is an economic system which is giving Americans more for their money every day.

Texas May Subdivide

Texas, under the joint resolution of congress for its annexation, approved March 1, 1945, may subdivide its area into any number not exceeding four additional states of convenient size having sufficient population, which shall be entitled to admission to the Union.

Mother, Son, Romeo, Juliet At least once in stage history the roles of Romeo and Juliet, the immortal lovers of Verona, were played by mother and son, says Collier's Weekly. The 10-year-old Lewis Hallam Jr. played opposite his mother, Mrs. Douglas, in a Philadelphia theater in the autumn of 1759.

'Johnny Cake' Traced "Johnny cake" is said to come from "Journey cake," so called because in the days of Daniel Boone no man left the settlements without his sack of cornmeal; the prime ingredient of "Johnny cake."

LONE GIRL VISITS IN HEAD-HUNTERS' VILLAGE 8 DAYS

Office Secretary Suffers Hardships in Jungle of Ecuador.

CLEVELAND.—A sojourn—interesting, if not pleasant—in a head-hunters' village is one of the adventures Bernice Goetz experienced in her recent trek through Ecuadorian jungles.

The dauntless, attractive, 28-year-old woman is employed in a Cleveland insurance office for 10 months of the year. The other two she spends on one-woman expeditions to uncivilized parts of the world.

"On my Ecuador trip I was deserted twice by my porters—once on the way back from the head-hunters' village, but I set out on foot alone through the jungle. At last I reached a village where I obtained a horse for the journey to Quito," Miss Goetz said.

Miss Goetz's travelogue is one replete with adventure. She said that she took a boat from New York to Guayaquil, Ecuador, and then went by rail to Quito, the "last outpost" of Ecuadorian civilization.

At Quito, a small town in the Andes with an altitude of 9,000 feet, she hired as guide Luis, who was half Spanish and half Jivaro and with whom she could speak Spanish. She and Luis rode horseback three days up into the mountains to the Paramos.

Fearful by Natives.

"The Paramos is a weird place. It is a bitter cold area of coarse grass and constant winds," Miss Goetz said. "The natives fear it, as so many have died there. We saw their bones along the way."

"We finally reached Tena, a jungle village. Here we sent back our horses and pack mule with the arriero, who was a sort of porter who followed us on foot."

She said that at Tena Luis hired three porters and the party went on foot along the Napo river, a tributary of the Amazon.

"Everything was fine," Miss Goetz said, "until we came to where natives were panning gold. The lure of sudden riches was too much for our porters and they deserted us. Luis went out each day to find others, but none of them could be persuaded to leave his gold panning."

"I made a lean-to of palms and waited for someone to come along or the natives to become tired of searching for gold. On the fourth day of my residence in the improvised shelter I heard a shout and popped out of the hut to see a heavily bearded Englishman with two canoes and three Indians."

English Explorer Helps.

"He wanted to know what I was doing stranded in the jungle and when I explained my plight he took Luis and me into his canoes down as far as the Rio Anzu. From here he went on to the Rio Tigre and turned inland toward Arapico, the Jivaro city."

1. The woman explorer said that the Harjiveros are the head hunters. "The young men with their golden placarone skin were very handsome. Miss Goetz said the women were unkempt. They peered out at us through their long hair pulled over their faces."

"I stayed a night in each of eight different houses. With my supply of medicines I was able to help some of the women suffering from insect bites. This raised me in their estimation somewhat, but they never were friendly."

On the last night there was a drunken party in the house where Miss Goetz was staying, so she and her party left the head-hunter city the next day. She added that they could see it was time to leave because "the people were getting too familiar and looked threatening."

Catalina Island's Unique Quail Hunters' Delight

SACRAMENTO, CALIF.—The dream of every nimbler—a bag limit of the tastiest birds of the Pacific coast within an hour.

And that dream comes true every day for scores of hunters romping the hills of Santa Catalina Island, opening to quail hunting this season for the first time in 30 years.

Such glowing reports pour in daily to state fish and game division here.

An investigation revealed that the Santa Catalina quail is a species entirely peculiar to the island and is found nowhere else in the world.

The bird is 7 per cent larger than the mainland variety and more heavily scaled on the lower breast, with broader streaks on the flanks and lower tail coverts, according to reports.

Cleveland Driver Wields Bar Over 'Erring Fender'

CLEVELAND.—Louis Koszta had an automobile.

The automobile had a fender.

And the fender, according to Louis, had a habit—a very annoying one. It was always bumping into things.

So, one night after Louis had been partaking, Patrolman Lad Rousal came upon him wielding a crowbar over the erring fender.

"It's that fender again," Louis explained. "It just smacked into that car ahead of me. I can't do a thing about that fender. It's always hitting things."

Louis received a suspended $50 fine and 60-day sentence with the agreement that he would junk the 1932 auto and pay for $15 damage done by the fender with the habit.

But It's True

Sullivan became interested in knitting when a girl told him that he did not have intelligence enough to understand women's activities. He won a men's knitting championship which was conducted by a New York restaurateur.

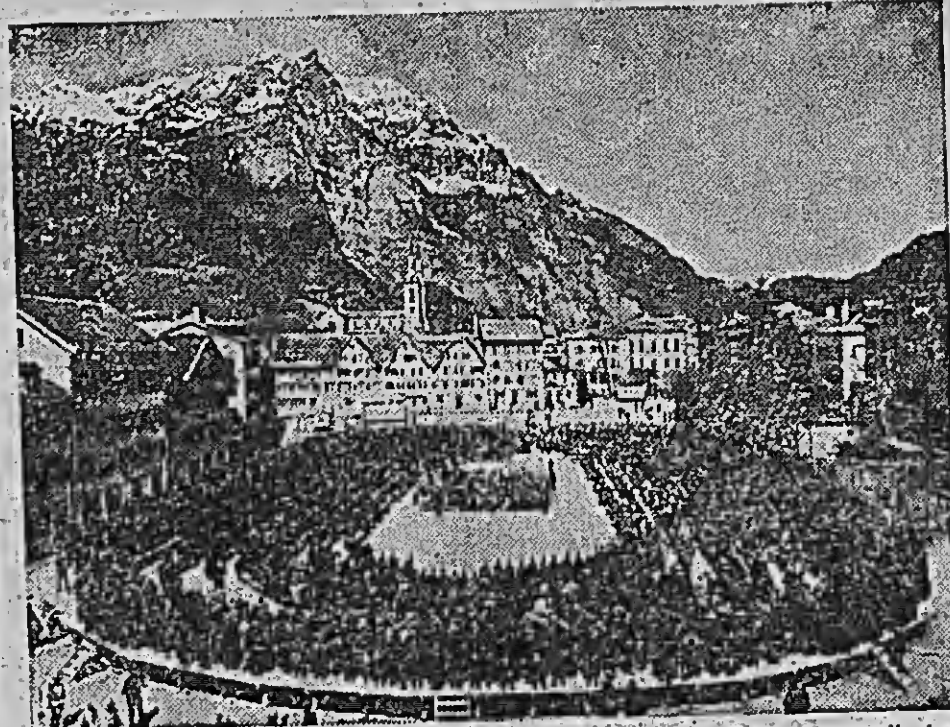

It is established that bees leave messages for one another by making marks in dirt, even on trees. It deals for the most part with the localities of the best flowers.

Popular Act at Folk Festival

Singing game players from Nashville, Tenn., led by Fred W. Colby, were one of the most popular features of the sixth annual folk festival opening last Thursday at Washington, D. C. The yearly program is designed to encourage American folk music, plays, dances, legends and exhibitions of folk arts and crafts.

Swiss Hold Unique Parliament

Hailed as a "living monument to an ideal form of democracy," the historic open-air parliament of Landsgemeinde was held Sunday at Glarus, Switzerland. The parliament, at which all men of voting age meet to elect members of the canton's government, has been carried down from the Middle Ages. This picture was taken at last year's meeting.

Paint Discoveries by Accident

Many components of paint were discovered entirely by accident. The walls of a soda furnace first revealed a deposit from which ultramarine was perfected. A chemist named Diesbach stumbled onto the art of making Prussian blue by accidentally mixing some alkali—that had been previously used to clarify ox blood—with a chemical solution. American zinc came of accidentally employing Franklinite instead of sand in a smelting furnace—French process zinc was discovered in the dross or skimmings from galvanizing baths.

St. Patrick Born in Wales

St. Patrick was a Roman citizen who was born in Wales. His father was a Celt and a Roman official named Kelpurnus. The family was aristocratic, as evidenced by St. Patrick's Latin name, Patricius. St. Patrick's native tongue was Welsh, or a language akin to that.

The Book of Kells

The Book of Kells, a magnificently illuminated copy of the Gospels by an unknown Seventh century monk, is said to attract more visitors to Dublin, Ireland, than any other object in the city.

Antelope Its Own Enemy

In a sense the antelope is its own worst enemy because of its curiosity, according to the American Wildlife Institute. The antelope simply cannot stand the presence of anything strange without investigating. Hunters, taking advantage of this fact, fired thousands within range by lying low and waving a bandana on a ram-rod or simply by throwing themselves prone and raising their feet in the air at rhythmic intervals. The antelopes must investigate—and come too close to the business end of the hunter's gun.

Description of Tennyson

Carlyle describes Tennyson at the age of 33 as: "One of the finest looking men in the world. A great shock of rough, dusky, dark hair; bright, laughing, hazel eyes; massive aquiline face, most massive yet most delicate; of anflow brown complexion, almost Indian-looking, clothes cynically loose, free-and-easy, smokes infinite tobacco." He was extremely tall and in later years possessed a rather terrifying air of somber majesty.

Lake Villa School News

The students have been working hard on the musical program for Thursday night. We forgot to mention that Irving Buchta isn't our only real dancer. Dallas, Marlene, Bud, Barbara, Alice and others are right there with him.

Kathleen Gindich, as our tambourine player, certainly shows her sense of rhythm.

You must see Ollie Walker as Old Uncle Joe.

If you want to see a good old-fashioned barn dance, you'll see one at Lake Villa school.

Come and hear Gene Autrey, alias John Christiansen. Don't forget to come—at 8:00 o'clock at the school on Thursday night.

On Saturday, May 6, between the hours of 12 noon and 7:00 p. m., another election will be held at the Lake Villa school to vote on a proposal for the combination auditorium-gymnasium. This additional election is necessary due to an unforeseen technicality required on the ballot. The same support given this project at the last election will be greatly appreciated on Saturday, May 6.

The eighth graders visited Grant High School Friday, April 28. This Tuesday, May 2, they visited Warren High school in the evening for discussion on advice for high school. Parents were invited to come.

Our baseball team played Antioch here last Friday, but lost to them. Tuesday, May 2, they played Round Lake here.

Speed of Birds When Migrating

When migrating, birds fly at great speeds three and a half miles above the surface of the earth. At this height, they have the help of constant winds blowing up to 100 miles an hour.

Stones From the World

More than 10,000 stones sent from all parts of the world are placed in a circular wall around the new Voortrekker monument, near Pretoria, South Africa, to mark the famous trek of the Boers.

Yesterdays

41 YEARS AGO
May 5, 1898

London, May 1.—The Vienna correspondent of The Sunday Special tells a tall story to the effect that Emperor William left Dresden last Saturday after a disagreement with Emperor Francis Joseph, arising from a heated discussion had in the afternoon relative to the Spanish-American war, in which the Austrian Emperor vainly tried to convince the kaiser that it is his duty and interest to assume, if not an unfriendly attitude toward the United States, a more friendly neutrality to Spain. Emperor William reiterated that Germany's interests pointed to a policy of strict neutrality and the rejection of the good will of the mighty republic. Emperor Francis Joseph was much hurt by the kaiser's heated, impulsive language, and plainly showed his displeasure at the banquet given in the evening, the situation growing so unpleasant that Emperor William took his departure before the close of the banquet.

The Lake County Telephone company, owned by F. B. Lovell and J. F. Clark, of Libertyville, has announced their intention of connecting Roundout, Half Day, Libertyville, Rockefeller, Grayslake, Fox Lake, in fact many of the prominent lake resorts in northern Illinois, by telephone.

The young ladies of Whitewater, Wis., recently advertised a "bloomer" social and all the town turned out, the feminine population to get ideas on spring cycling costumes, of course, while the young men came for the good of the cause.

30 YEARS AGO
May 6, 1909

One of the freak accidents in the storm last Thursday night which was the worst Lake county has ever known, was the blowing off a bridge of Will Cooper, Diamond Lake, and his team. Cooper was driving over one of the small bridges that span the outlet of the lake when the wind picked up the horses, heavy farm wagon, man and all and dropped them in four feet of water. The team were rescued, but Cooper was badly bruised and shaken up. At Waukegan a tidal wave eight feet high damaged piers, buildings and shipping to the extent of $20,000.

J. F. Clark, president of the Lake County Telephone company, which he and F. B. Lovell, also of Libertyville, founded nine years ago, dropped dead of apoplexy on the main street of Libertyville Tuesday afternoon.

The "lid" is on in Waukegan. All saloons must close at 11 each night and must not open on Sundays at all. There must be no gambling of any kind in Waukegan. It is rumored that the slot machine will be tackled next. The Misses Belle Hughes and Hazel Tiffany have successfully passed their examinations and each is now the possessor of a teacher's certificate. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Minnis, Salem, were over Sunday visitors at H. H. Hollister's, Bristol.

15 YEARS AGO

Thursday the spouse squad raided the Devil's Elbow, a resort near Russell on the state line. The owner was taken into custody on a booze writ. Fire from an unknown origin destroyed the 12-room house on the Hogan farm, about three miles east of Pikeville, Sunday evening.

Sixty members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges helped Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Burnette celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, May 6.

One local merchant, who came to the News office for a suggestion for his Saturday Special ad, spied Otto Klass' notice of Free Boutonnieres for Saturday. The merchant thought it would be a good idea to offer dictionaries so we could find out what it is that Otto is giving away.

Thomas Burnette, Antioch; Frank Valento, Ingleside; E. C. Hamlin, Lake Villa, and Ambrose Beaubien, Highland Park, have been added by Sheriff Edwin Ahlstrom to Lake county's motor policemen.

CROWD OF 600 IN ATTENDANCE AT FIREMEN'S SHOW

Wrestling-Boxing Benefit Has Enthusiastic Audience

Approximately $200 toward their fund for new uniforms was cleared by the Antioch firemen at the benefit wrestling and boxing show which was held Friday evening in the high school gymnasium, with an enthusiastic audience of over 600 attending.

The most exciting moments of the evening were offered by the double wind-up card featuring Jim McMillen of Antioch vs. his arch-enemy of old, King Kong, and Ruffy Silverstein vs. the Chinese grappler, Chin Lee.

McMillen and Kong put on a good show with some fancy wrestling, during the fast and furious moments that let up to the whirlwind finale in which Jim let loose an additional burst of energy to defeat his opponent with a series of body slams.

Their encounter had been built up as a "grudge fight," in memory of the occasion when Kong used a rock to put McMillen out of the running in a battle last summer at the Grayslake arena. It was accordingly awaited with excited interest by fans who were eager to see their hero avenge himself, and who applauded wildly as he thoroughly subdued his opponent at the end of 30 minutes' tussling.

Add Excitement
 "Ruffy" Silverstein lived up to his name by proceeding apparently to "scare the daylight" out of the ordinarily capable Chin Lee, a wrestler who has cut quite a swath on the west coast. In 10 minutes Ruffy had Lee scurrying for the ropes at almost every threatening move, and in four more had put him out of the way with more rough and tumble tactics, including a final set of body slams.

Histrionics as well as the far-famed technique of the jiu-jitsu enlivened the match between Jerry Meeker, Hawaiian expert, and Matty Matsura, holder of the third degree black belt rank in Japan.

The choking tactics employed by the jiu-jitsu exponents vied with the judo jackets they wore for the attention of the crowd, who marveled and gasped by turns for 10 minutes until the finale in which Matty put his opponent temporarily out of commission, apparently with the greatest of ease.

Wild Bill Murphy and Chester Kilpatrick of Antioch joined with the professionals for the good of the cause and wrestled to a draw for the Main street championship and the keys to the city jail.

In the amateur sparring matches which were an "additional added attraction" to the program, William Cheouske, Fox Lake, was awarded the decision over Richard Davis of Antioch; Harold White of Fox Lake bowed to James Rpooneck of Antioch, and William Owens, Lake Villa, was awarded a decision on a technical

Antioch High Wins First Baseball Game

Antioch Township High school opened its baseball season with a 14-3 victory over Barrington Friday, at Barrington.

The Antioch second team played Waukegan High's freshman team last Wednesday. A return game between the two teams will be played Wednesday, May 10.

On May 12, there will be a return game with Barrington here. Ray Wells of the Antioch team fanned nine batters and allowed only four hits in Friday's game.

The lineups were as follows:
 Antioch (1-4) AB R H E
 Knott 4 2 2 0
 Harvey 4 2 1 0

knockout over Robert Hallwas, Antioch.

Gordon, Smith Referee
 Big Lou Gordon, who played football with the Chicago Bears last season until a broken leg put him out of the game, ably refereed the tussle and wrestle matches, while Robert Smith, Channel Lake, was the third man in the ring for the leather pushers.

George McGaughey, who is the official announcer for the weekly shows held in Waukegan under the auspices of the city council, acted as guest announcer for this occasion.

Besides announcing the fights, he also introduced the guests of honor for the evening—Harold "Red" Grange of football fame; Jack Manders, noted half-back, and George Halas, owner and president of the Chicago Bears football team.

Members of the Antioch fire department, in uniform, acted as traffic men on the school grounds and handled the seating arrangements within doors.

PLEASANT PRAIRIE TEAM TO BE ACES' FIRST FOE SUNDAY

The Pleasant Prairie base ball team will lead off the 1939 season here Sunday in a game with the Antioch Aces at the high school field at 2:30 o'clock.

Headed by Lulliver Laseo as acting manager, candidates for the team held their first practice last Sunday afternoon, but due to the cool weather only seventeen players appeared. From this bunch, and with the addition of some of last year's players expected to report Sunday, the Aces hope to present a strong lineup to oppose the visitors from Wisconsin.

Breaks Course Record at Chain-O-Lakes Club

Frederick Hawkins broke the course record at Chain o' Lakes Country club during the golf tournament between Antioch Township High school and Waukegan High Wednesday evening by shooting a 62.

He was matched with Pierce of the Waukegan school, who made the course in 82.

Good golf was displayed by all of the participants, including Cisna, Snyder, Bob Hawkins and Gordon Knott of Antioch.

The course at the club is looking good, according to F. O. Hawkins, manager and pro. While the cool weather has tended to keep attendance down, there are several tournaments in prospect, and it is expected that with a little warm weather the links will soon be thronged.
